Your application form for Citizenship has been registered in the Application Portal

I understand that the application has not been submitted until I have attended my appointment and handed in the necessary documents, including this letter with a signature. I can find information about which documents to hand in in the email I got when I registered the application form or at www.udi.no/checklists.

The case processing time is calculated from the day I hand in the documents. I am aware that the application may be rejected if I have not handed in all the documents on the checklist.

I understand that the Norwegian immigration authorities may collect information about me or my reference person from other Norwegian government agencies, for example the Norwegian Tax Administration, the Norwegian Labour and Welfare Service (NAV) or the Norwegian State Educational Loan Fund. The immigration authorities can use this information when processing this application and future cases.

I confirm that the information I have given in my application is correct and complete. I understand that I can be punished according to Norwegian law if I give information which is materially incorrect or clearly misleading. I understand that if I am given Norwegian citizenship, it can be revoked if I have given false information or withheld important information.

Stays outside Norway

Have you been travelling outside of Norway during the past 10 years, or since you came to Norway?

Yes

You must fill in all foreign trips you have made in the past ten years, or since you were born or moved to Norway if that is less than ten years ago, counting back from today's date. Enter the trips in chronological order, starting with the earliest one.

You must both fill in information about trips where you were given a stamp in your passport and about other trips, for example in Europe.

If you cannot remember exactly what dates you travelled, please fill in to the best of your recollection. The most important thing is that the length of the trips is as accurate as possible.

Personal Background Information

Criminal offences

If you have been convicted of a crime or fined, you may not be entitled to Norwegian citizenship until a certain period of time has passed (quarantine period). This will be calculated according to the rules in the Citizenship Regulations chapter 5. If you are charged with or are under investigation for criminal offences, the processing of your application may be halted until the criminal case has been decided.

If you are under investigation or have previously been penalized in Norway or in another country, you are obligated to fill out a form for Notification of criminal offences and submit it along with the rest of the documents included in your application

☒ I have read and understood this information.

Courses and tests in the Norwegian language and social studies

From 1 January 2017 those who apply for Norwegian citizenship must have passed an oral Norwegian test at a minimum of level A2, and passed a social studies test in Norwegian. The requirements apply to everyone between the age of 18 and 67.

The requirement for having passed the tests are in addition to the requirement for having completed courses in the Norwegian or Sami language in order to get Norwegian citizenship. If you are between the age of 55 and 67, this requirement is new for you. Check which requirements for courses and tests which apply to you.
